» RGK As individual as you are

More than three decades ago the RGK founders meet through their mutual passion for wheelchair basketball.

Together we identified using the same chair for general life as our favourite sport was not “cutting the mustard”, so we investigated rigid frame chairs that had newly arrived to market and discovered there was still nothing of a truly bespoke, tailored design available. The idea for RGK was born

Thirty years on and we have an amazing team. We are thrilled and excited that their skill, passion and commitment have turned our idea into a brand with a global presence and a reputation for excellence.
